Volunteer role description Lifeboat Visits Team Member

The impact you will make

You will promote the work of the lifeboat station to the local community and visitors, help raise vital funds and save lives at sea by sharing key water safety messages.

What you will be doing

- Give inspiring guided tours of the lifeboat station to visitors including groups of young people and adults.
- Create a welcoming and friendly environment within the station for visitors.
- Ensure key RNLI messages are communicated to visitors.
- Supporting the RNLI's One Crew ethos.

What do you need for this role?

- Enthusiasm.
- Good communication skills and confident speaking to groups.
- Good team working skills.
- Comfortable interacting with young people.

What's in it for you?

- Join an inclusive and diverse organisation
- Have fun, meet new people and join a motivated and enthusiastic team who are making a difference
- Learn skills and gain experience to enhance your CV
- Gain the satisfaction of giving back
- Training to fulfil your volunteer role will be provided and reasonable out of pocket expenses reimbursed

Potential time commitment: Flexible with seasonal requirements Team: Regional Engagement Volunteer manager: Lifeboat Visits Officer Who you'll manage: N/A Key requirements:

Reference check

RNLI Values

As one crew, we strive for excellence and are Trustworthy, Courageous, Selfless and Dependable

Safeguarding

The RNLI is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and vulnerable adults and expects all volunteers to share this commitment and comply with the RNLI Safeguarding Policy and procedures.

Where applicable we will carry out appropriate safeguarding checks (ie DBS, PVG or Garda checks)

Safeguarding level 2 : Awareness and understanding of safeguarding policy required and online safeguarding training module required to be completed upon commencement of role.